

EXHIBITION & SYMPOSIUM

THE LEARNING NETWORK & the PEOPLE'S HEALTH MOVEMENT of South Africa invite you to a SYMPOSIUM,

Claiming the right to health: community experiences and the role of health committees

This symposium will be followed by the opening of a Learning Network

Picturing Health rights:Voices from the Cape Flats

SATURDAY 05 OCTOBER 2013,
HIDDINGH HALL, ORANGE STR, CPT
9AM – 1PM (SYMPOSIUM)
1PM – 3PM (EXHIBITION)

Please join us for the Symposium and the opening of a Photo-voice exhibition of photos about health rights taken by members of The Women's Circle (TWC), one of the Learning Network affiliates.

The symposium will explore how community voice can be more effective in shaping how health care is delivered and the conditions needed for healthy lives are achieved. This will include exploring how health committees can be more effective vehicles for realising health rights.

Photo-voice is a method that has been used to uncover which health issues are of greatest concern to communities. In this project participants from Hanover Park, Delft and Athlone were asked to take photos of issues related to health in their communities. The photos they took for the exhibition related to environmental pollution, substance abuse, nutrition, the effects of crime and a need for spaces to relax.
